Our Special ...FOR... TOMORROW!

We shall sell 100 pieces of Cotton Bird-eye, 18 by 20 inches wide, each piece containing full 10 yards—the quantity isn't exactly as large as we would like to have it, but the first hundred customers will get one piece each, which is the limit, at

On account of this being a one-day special it will be impossible to fill Mail or C. O. D. Orders.

Free to Our Patrons

We have secured from the Fashions Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, New York, and Chicago, exclusive right to publish their famous journal "Fashions," in our city. "Fashions" is one of the best monthlies published in the civilized world, and is in every sense worthy of the highest endorsement as a family paper of unusual merit. To secure this journal you will have to register your name at our Bureau of Information and receive a card which will entitle you to every issue, which is monthly. The following are the contents for our first number, to be issued November 1:

Editorial comments, by Augusta Prescott: "The Tail Tale Tick," by Lester Schuler; "Educate Children for Heaven," by T. De Witt Talmage; "In the Nick of Time," by Elaine Cartwright; "Cut Glass," by Julian Harrel Cowles; "Advice to Young Stage Aspirants," by Ellen Perry; "How to Keep Young," Marian De Pue; "The Power of Song," Ira J. Sankay; "Paris Fashions," by Annetta Rierdon Reed; "New York Fashions," by Helen Grey Sage; "The Making of a Cracker," by Josephine Willis; "Love and Marriage in Society," Mrs. Russell Page; "You Can Learn to Sing," by Emma Calve; "Restlessness and Wrinkles," by Marian Bright; "Golden's Thanksgiving," by Grace Denio; "November Evenings around the Chafing Dish," by Linda Hull Larned; "Decorating the Home for Autumn," by Margaret Hill Canfield; "In My Lady's Boudoir," and many other well-known writers.

Parties living out of town and wishing us to supply them with this beautiful magazine can have the same mailed for one year by sending us 24 cents in stamps.

Winning in a Walk

There are going to be some mighty dull days among the other tailoring establishments while we are making up the $2,300 stock of woolsens that we bought of Frank Baker & Co., 707 Market Street, Philadelphia. The second installment of these odds goes on sale this morning at these crowd-bringing prices:

Winter Suits, made to measure, from fine chevrons-choices of black, blue, or neat mixtures. $15 values, for.....
